Nino Scalzo is truly one of a kind! He consistently goes above and beyond to help and support those around him. His kindness, compassion, and determination are unmatched, and he has an incredible talent for making everyone feel valued. Whether it's offering advice, lending a helping hand, or just being a great listener, Nino excels in every way. His exceptional skills, dedication, and positive attitude have significantly contributed to his success and the success of those around him. Nino's ability to collaborate effectively and his unwavering commitment to excellence make him a true asset to any workplace. I wholeheartedly recommend Nino for re-election to Second Vice-President of TECT.
