

VOTE

MARIANNE CORIGLIANO

FOR SECRETARY

YOUR VOICE ON THE TECT
EXECUTIVE

 OTE
May 7 & 8

“As First Vice President of NYSU, I can attest for Marianne’s dedication, accuracy, and commitment to financial transparency. Her attention to detail, her proven ability to manage the NYSU budget, and her advocacy for members make her the perfect fit for the TECT Executive. Beyond her financial expertise, she is a trusted team player, always willing to support and guide our North York members. We are grateful for her hard work and dedication , which continues to strengthen our subunit.”

NADIA GARISTO, TECT Safe Schools Officer & NYSU 1st Vice President

VOTE MARIANNE CORIGLIANO

- Advocating for teacher rights, for over 8 years, as Treasurer of the North York Sub Unit.
- Supporting members and ensuring their voices are heard as a member of the Joint Staff Allocation Committee.
- Fostering collaboration, transparency, and strong representation for all educators.
- Bringing the same sense of work ethic and compassion as a guidance counsellor to the role of TECT Secretary.
- Dedicated professional with over 30 years of board experience including President of the Canadian Italian Business and Professional Association.
- With 20 years of leadership experience as a senior manager in the hospitality industry.
- Recipient of the Queen’s Jubilee Award and Ontario Service Award, for outstanding volunteerism.

“Marianne Corigliano is an extraordinary guidance counsellor whose kindness and compassion knows no bounds. She supports vulnerable students through their toughest times with unwavering empathy and care. Balancing the needs of ten schools, she remains constantly available, offering guidance and encouragement to all. Her engaging class presentations and dedication reflect her remarkable work ethic, making a lasting impact on every student she touches.”

IOLANDA ARCURI, Teacher, St. John Bosco & EYSU Treasurer

In Solidarity Defending Teacher Rights

Advocating For Teachers at the OECTA AGM

Ontario Service Award from Robin Martin MPP